Deserving Dads

June 9, 2009

He's the guy who fixed your car, helped paint your apartment, scared off your dates in Junior High, and who's always been there for you. Doesn't he deserve a special present on Father's Day? Here are a few suggestions on how you can show the big guy how much he really means to you.

Athletic dads will love PumpOne ($19.99), a personal trainer app for your iPod or iPhone. The program has over 400 pre-made workouts and over 4,000 exercise images and videos. It's very easy to create a personalized workout. He can do it at the office with the door closed, when he's traveling, or at home. For more information, visit PumpOne.com.
